DETAILED ACTION

Priority

The instant application is a (371) U.S. National stage entry of PCT/JP04/14445 with an international filing date of 9/24/04, which claims foreign priority to JP 2003-334610 filed 9/26/03.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, Applicants are required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 5-9, drawn to a near field exposure mask that includes a light blocking layer having a fine opening on a base material (claims 5-7, classified in class 430, subclass 5); an exposure method that includes exposure of an exposure object to light by using the exposure mask (claim 8, classified in class 430, subclass 311); and an exposure apparatus that includes the exposure mask along with a light source (claim 9, classified in class 355, subclass 18).

Group 2, claim(s) 1-4, 10-13, drawn to a near field light generating method (claims 1-4) and a near field optical head for generating a light spot on a light outgoing side of a rectangular or slit opening (claims 10-11, classified in class 250, subclass 216); an optical microscope that includes the optical head for observation of a sample surface (claim 12, classified in class 359, subclass 385); and a recording and reproducing apparatus that includes the optical head along with a recording medium (claim 13, classified in class 369, subclass 44.23).

The inventions listed above as Groups 1-2 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features (STF) for at least the following reasons: the special technical features (STF) in Group 1 (for exposure of an exposure object) are different from those in Group 2 (for observation of a sample surface), as indicated above.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required, because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144.

If claims are added after the election, Applicants must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

If Applicants traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, Applicants should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicants are also reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
